

North Dakota Parks & Recreation Department

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release, Monday, June 2, 2014

For more information, contact Gordon Weixel 701-328-5357

Sunne Barn celebrates 100 years

The Sunne Demonstration Farm is an integral part of Fort Ransom State Park and at its core is the immense Sunne Barn which is 100 years old. A celebration of the Sunne Barn is being held Saturday, June 14 at the park.

Old fashioned kids' games kick off the event at 1 p.m. and run until 5 p.m. A dedication ceremony starts at 2 p.m. The bluegrass music of Cotton Wood will take to the stage at 2:30 p.m. and again at 7:30 p.m. An evening meal is planned for 6 p.m.

It's also going to be Visitor Appreciation Day at Fort Ransom State Park so the daily vehicle entry fee is waived. Throughout the day there are free hotdogs and pop along with free hayrides. A goodwill offering will be accepted for the food and music.

For additional information on the event or Fort Ransom State Park call 701-973-4331 or go online at www.parkrec.nd.gov.